

JUST ONCE

About This Series

We will study unique moments from the life of Jesus, unique in that they appear _____, in _____ of the four gospels.

JESUS TELLS A STORY

What's so cool about Matthew 22.1-14?

- When Jesus tells a story he _____ immediately.
- When Jesus tells a story you can quickly _____.
- Jesus' stories almost always take an _____.
- Jesus stories almost always end with a _____.

What happens in Matthew 22.1-14?

- Jesus tells a story about those who reject a _____ from a king.
- The king sends out _____, and the second is rejected violently.
- New invitations are sent to _____ and the wedding hall is filled up.
- The king _____ for not wearing the right outfit.
- Jesus observes that many are _____, but few are _____.

QUESTIONS WE ASK AND COMMITMENTS TO MAKE

1. Can a person be called by God, but _____ by God?
There is a difference between the _____ and the _____.
Every day, thank God for calling you and choosing you to respond _____.
2. Am I guilty of putting God _____?
We are all guilty at times of _____ the Lord's invitations.
This week say _____ to a clear invitation from God, and then follow through.
3. Have I gotten _____ in my approach to God?
We sometimes presume we can approach God _____, rather than his.
Trust that the thing God is asking of you, is what's _____.