

WORSHIP & WISDOM

In times of increasing stress, the Psalms encourage us to _____
_____ on our expressions of faith, and our expectations that God will act on our behalf.

PSALM 27: WHOM SHALL I FEAR?

- David expresses his _____ in the LORD. Vv.1-6
- David prays for the LORD's _____ in difficult circumstances. Vv.7-12
- David urges us to _____ on the LORD. Vv.13-14

PSALM 27.1

In dark times, when I feel threatened and weak, I remember the LORD is my _____ and my _____
and the _____ of my life.

PSALM 27.4

My relationship with God can't be just one more thing. It has to be _____
_____.

PSALM 27.13-14

Because I know God intimately, I can trust him _____. Waiting on him isn't a matter of if he will act on my behalf; it's a matter of when.

WAITING ON THE LORD IS NEVER PASSIVE.

1. Waiting on the LORD is _____ his face.
2. Waiting on the LORD is _____ his commands.
3. Waiting on the LORD is _____ to his goodness.
4. Waiting on the LORD is leaning forward, _____
him for what's next.

A VERSE TO HOLD ON TO

I believe that I shall look upon the _____ in the land of the living! Psalms 27.13

