

NEITHER _____ NOR _____ BELONG IN JESUS' CHURCH.

PAUL URGES CHARITY AMONG BELIEVERS, ROMANS 14.1-12

- The strong enjoy their freedom in Christ, freedom from _____ and _____ laws.
- The weak feel _____ to obey those laws.
- Both the strong and the weak pass judgment on one another, when ____ is their judge.
- The strong and the weak should _____ and not attack one another.

ROMANS: A THEOLOGICAL GLOSSARY

_____:

Through the death and resurrection of Christ believers are set free from sin and living under the burden of the law.

_____:

We indulge our sinful nature, believing we are free to sin, and then we presume on God's grace and forgiveness.

_____:

We demand strict adherence to rules and regulations in order to achieve salvation and spiritual growth.

_____:

The belief that today's Christians should observe Sabbath laws.

RECLAIMING THE LOST VIRTUE OF CHARITY

1. Appreciate that we all come to Christ with certain _____.
2. Remember that believers are on the _____.
3. Try to get into the _____ of the other person, to see what they value.
4. We can hold strong opinions, but we should hold them _____.
5. Let gentleness and love _____ harshness and hostility in your relationship with other believers.
6. Know that there are things _____ but that _____, because of our love for one another and our desire to continue in relationship.

As for the one who is weak in faith, _____, but not to quarrel over opinions.