

THE BOOK OF ACTS IS A _____ TO THE GOSPEL OF LUKE.

WE KNOW ACTS IS A SEQUEL TO LUKE BECAUSE ...

- In Acts 1.1, Luke refers back to “the _____.”
- Luke addresses both Acts and his gospel to the _____ ... Theophilus.
- Both books start by connecting the ministry of _____ and Jesus.
- The Gospel ends, and Acts begins with Jesus instructing the disciples to wait in Jerusalem to receive the _____.
- The account of the _____ in Luke 24 overlaps with an expanded account in Acts 1.

JESUS IS _____, AND THE _____ TO THE GOSPEL IS THE WORK HE IS DOING THROUGH HIS FOLLOWERS.

ACTS 1.1-5, READING THE TEXT AND ASKING QUESTIONS:

QUESTION 1

- Question 1.1:
What did Jesus prove to his disciples?

Answer 1.1:

That he was _____. He was really,
really _____.

- Question 1.2
And this was important why?
Answer 1.2: Because apart from Jesus being alive his followers would have nothing _____.

QUESTION 2

- Question 2.1:
How is the content of Luke’s gospel described?

Answer 2.1:

All that Jesus _____ to do and teach.

- Question 2.2:
Which implies what about the work of his followers?
Answer 2.2:
There’s a sense in which what Jesus began,
he will _____ to do through us.

WE ARE THE _____!

TELL SOMEONE

Once Jesus saves you, his purpose for your life is to _____.
So, tell someone. You can share the _____.

And you will be _____ ... ACTS 1.8