

LIVING BETWEEN PROMISE AND FULFILLMENT

The early church didn't _____ Christ's coming. They stayed with it long enough to be _____ on the Promise.

Takeaway:

Don't exhaust your ____! This is _____ of the celebration of God's promise.

Before we ever sinned, God _____.

Takeaway:

God's _____ was not a reaction— He intentionally planned it _____.

God's promise unfolds _____. God's plan advances even when _____ seems _____.

Takeaway:

Our difficult but simple job is to wait on the Lord, which requires a humble trust.

We don't ____ everything _____ yet. The _____ of the world reminds us _____.

Takeaway:

We press forward, not because we _____ but because we trust the One who _____.

THE GOD OF PROMISE HAS _____ YOU.
HE IS _____.
AND HE IS _____.
