

WORSHIP & WISDOM

My sin is a _____ I cannot clean off.

A RETURN TO THE PSALMS AND PROVERBS

- These are OT _____ Books written in verse rather than prose.
- The Psalms are the _____ of the Bible and are used for worship.
- The Proverbs are short sayings and are principles for _____.
- Both books feature Hebrew _____ and figurative _____.
- They engage your _____ and your _____.

PSALM 51 GOD, CLEAN ME!

Message: I am entirely reliant on the LORD to _____ my sin and _____ my joy.

Context: King David's sins have been _____.

.1-2: David pleads for _____.

.3-6: David confesses his _____.

.7-12: David prays for forgiveness and _____.

.13-17: David vows to lead _____ back to God.

.18-19: David prays for the repentance of _____.

RECOGNIZING THE SERIOUSNESS OF MY SIN, HERE'S WHAT I KNOW . . .

1. I own it. It's sin. It's my sin. I have no excuses. _____.
2. I want it _____ of my life.
3. I'm _____ of removing it myself.
4. I am totally deserving of God's _____ and utterly dependent on God's _____.
5. I want _____ what God has done for me: repentance and restoration.

A VERSE TO HOLD ON TO

Create in me a _____, O God,
and renew a right spirit within me. Psalm 51.10

